

Please, do not consider any attempts to weaken New Jerseys "DO NOT CALL LIST". We have a unique situation here in NJ where we can peacefully sit down to dinner with our families without the salvos of unwanted sales pitches that we were annoyed with before our state's new laws prohibiting these attacks on our entitled privacy.